

Remember Our God And Give Thanks

Text: Deuteronomy 8

I. Introduction

- One of the greatest things to be thankful for is friends and family

II. We Dare Not Forget God's Blessings

- The Israelites were ending their 40 years in the wilderness
- The words of Moses in verses 10-11 could be to us today
- Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget...let we forget
- No one person or country is more special than another
- It doesn't matter whether someone has more than another
- God loves everyone the same
- We dare not take our blessings for granted

III. We Are A Prosperous People

- Perhaps we are too prosperous...
- We have it better than our parents had it
- We are a prosperous people
- We need to be reminded of that
- We need to give thanks
- We don't know what it is to be without

IV. An Abundance Of Material Goods Rarely Draws A Person Closer To God

- Two-thirds of today's Christians live in third world countries
- Wealth and material goods rarely draw a person closer to Christ
- The greatest need we have this Thanksgiving week is:

V. To Rekindle Our Sense Of Dependence Upon God

- Remember! Remember God!
- The cross of Christ should be the centerpiece of every Christian life
- Society has lost its focus and is moving away from God
- Just look at each day's headlines
- All of life is a gift from God

- This Thanksgiving day let us remember God who gave His Son to die on the cross for our sins

VI. Conclusion

- We must be grateful to God...grateful to God who has given us many things to enjoy life
