

What Dads Are Good For

Text: Romans 5:6-8, Matthew 9:35-10:8

I. Introduction

- Happy Father's Day!
- Jesus gave His disciples all they needed in order to do His work for the Gospel
- Don't we already have basically everything we need?
- "Freely you have received, freely give!"

II. We Have So Much

- Most of us don't realize it, we take it for granted
- Most of the world can't even understand
- We have more in this country than others in other countries have

III. "Freely You Have Received, Freely Give!"

- We have so much, but we don't even realize it
- That's the motivation for all good works

IV. When Jesus Spoke Those Words To His Disciples, He Was Not Talking About Financial Blessings

- He was talking of God's love, grace, and salvation
- He asks us to do the same thing – to share the faith nurtured in us through His grace
- Dads...do you children know that you love them?
- You and I are loved by God
- This makes us spiritually rich
- Dads...tell you children that you love them
- To know you are loved is the greatest gift from your earthly and Heavenly Father
- To know we have a Heavenly Father who loves us is the most wonderful gift is all

V. Conclusion

- Our goal is to try to be like our Heavenly Father
